A Consultation on Military Policy and Counseling Priorities

The Interfaith Committee on Draft and Military Information is sponsoring a Consultation on Military Policy and Counseling Priorities on February 21, 22, and 23, 1975 in Washington, D.C.

The housing and sessions will be held at the Church of the Pilgrims Retreat Center at 2201 P Street NW. The first session will begin on Friday at 8:00 PM with the gathering of ideas and will end on Sunday at noon having dealt with such ideas as Pentagon Strategy, Manpower Development, Counseling since "Earned Re-Entry," Today's GI and an updating of the Military/Draft Issues.

The emphasis of this workshop is for those engaged in Military/Draft Counseling. Persons requiring additional information should write or call James Tomlonson at NISBCO or Jerry Kinchy at CCCO in Philadelphia, PA [215—568-7971] or Jack Travers at FOR in Nyack, N.Y. [914—358-4601].

New SSS Registrars Appointed in Alaska

In its continuing effort to broaden the registration base, the Selective Service System has now included yet another type of government employee. In Alaska, the Job Corps screener has become the registrar for the remote areas and villages which he visits during the regular course of his work.

The "imaginative" idea came from Mr. Charles E. Wilson, the Job Coordinator for the state. Mr. Wilson noticed during his Job Corps screening process that some young men were not registered with the System.

So, Mr. Wilson called the State Director of Alaska and suggested his personnel become registrars.

RELIGIOUS STATEMENTS

NISBCO, in April, 1974, released its third edition of Religious Statements on Amnesty. This updated and enlarged edition contains both The American Lutheran Church and The Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod Statements. The United Presbyterian Church in the USA Statement has also been expanded.

This important booklet is available for $.35 for a single copy — 10 for $2.50. A special price is available for bulk orders used as educational items. Orders under $5 must be prepaid.
